One Dead in Fairchild park Fire

On 12/01/2017 at approximately 1745 hours the Shelton Police and Fire Departments responded to 35 Hemlock Drive, Shelton in the Fairchild trailer park for a fully engulfed structure fire. First responders that arrived on scene received reports that there was possibly a person in the trailer at the time but the fire. After the fire was suppressed it was confirmed that 75 year old Richard Kowalsky was in the trailer at the time and died of his injuries.

The cause of the fire is being investigated by the Shelton Police Department, Shelton Fire Marshall's Office and the Connecticut Fire Marshall's Office.
