PRESS RELEASE

Man Arrested Reclaiming his Property at Police Department

By: Detective Christopher Nugent

September 26, 2017

On 09/25/17 Shelton Police Department arrested Davie McMillian, Age 23, of Waterbury, when he returned to the police department to reclaim a bag, which belonged to him.

Earlier on 09/25/17 Shelton Police Department responded to an incident involving McMillian in Shelton. Hours after the incident Shelton Police were contacted and informed that McMillian left a bag behind and wanted to turn it over to the Police. The caller informed the Police it appeared to contain some type of drugs inside it.

Shelton Police responded to the scene and retrieved the bag, which Officers confirmed contained a moderate amount of crack cocaine. The bag and narcotics were transported back to the Shelton Police Department.

A short period of time later McMillian arrived at the Police Department to reclaim the bag, which he left behind earlier in the day. McMillian entered the Police Department Lobby with a female, who was identified as a victim, which had a full no contact protective order against McMillian. The order prevents McMillian from having any contact with the victim.

McMillian positively identified all the items in the bag, which were left behind by him earlier in the day.

McMillian was advised that he was going to be placed under arrest. McMillian was processed and charged with Illegal Possession of narcotics and Violation of a Protective Order. McMillian was placed on a total of $11,000 bond and transported to Derby Superior Court on 09/26/17.

The charges in the press release are merely accusations, and the defendant is presumed innocent unless and until proven guilty
