Shelton Police Investigate Man Thrown Off Bridge

By: Detective Christopher Nugent

November 23, 2017

On 11/23/17 at approximately 1:00 AM Shelton Police Department and Shelton Fire Department responded to the Derby Shelton Bridge on a report of a male in the water.

Police and Fire responding to the scene located the 30 year old male victim from Monroe submerged in the water. Officer David Eldridge swam out to victim and quickly pulled him to shore with the assistance of fire personnel. Once brought to shore the male victim was transported to Yale New Haven Hospital with serious injuries.

An investigation revealed that an altercation occurred on the bridge and the victim was thrown off the bridge. Police are aware there were witnesses to this incident, and request anyone that may have information to contact the Shelton Police Department at (203) 924-1544. Calls can be kept confidential.
