By: Detective Christopher Nugent
October 26, 2017

On 10/26/17 the Shelton Police Department arrested Bryan Stockbridge, age 58, of Ansonia on an outstanding arrest warrant for his arrest.

The investigation started in March of 2016, when 3 female employees of Dee's Kitchen located at 509 Howe Ave., Shelton, CT. came forward to police to report that Stockbridge was sexually harassing them and touched them inappropriately on several occasions.

Detectives investigating quickly secured an arrest warrant, however were unable to apprehend him at that time. Information was brought forward to Police that Stockbridge fled to California following an interview with Detectives.

On 10/26/17 Shelton Police were provided information that Stockbridge was back in Connecticut and living in Ansonia. Shelton Police responded to the address provided and located Stockbridge. Stockbridge was taken into custody without incident.

Stockbridge was charged with 3 counts of Sexual Assault 4th degree. Stockbridge posted a $5,000.00 bond and is scheduled to appear in Derby Superior Court on 10/27/16.
