PRESS RELEASE

Arrests Made in Serious Assault

Detective Christopher Nugent

11/29/2018

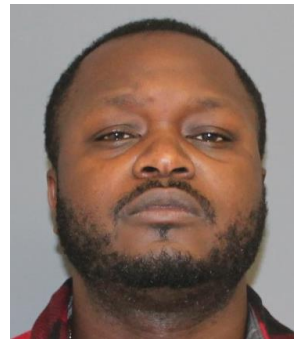

On 10/12/2018 at approximately 1:00 AM Shelton Police were dispatched to the area of 159 Center St. on a report of an unresponsive male laying on the sidewalk covered in blood. EMS was dispatched to the scene and transported the 35 year old male to Yale New Haven Hospital, where the he was treated for serious injuries to his face and body.

Shelton Detectives responded to the scene and investigated the incident. Through interviews, assistance of local downtown business owners, and the public's assistance, Detectives were able to identify two individuals responsible for assaulting the victim.

With the assistance of Derby Police Department and Department of Corrections, Shelton Police arrested Kelvin Whitehurst, age 31, of Derby on 11/20/2018. Whitehurst was charged with Assault 1st degree, Conspiracy to commit assault 1st degree, and Breach of Peace 2nd degree. Whitehurst was placed on a $250,000 bond.

On 11/28/2018, Coma Fogle, age 37, of Waterbury turned himself into Shelton Police. Fogle was charged with Assault 1st degree, Conspiracy to commit assault 1st degree, and Breach of Peace 2nd degree. Fogle was placed on a $250,000 bond and transported to Derby Superior Court.

The victim was released from the hospital after an extended period of treatment.

The charges in the press release are merely accusations, and the defendant is presumed innocent unless and until proven guilty
