Domestic Dispute leads to arrest

On 06/29/2019 at approximately 9:00 AM a female complainant came to the Shelton Police and reported that she was involved in a domestic disturbance during the overnight hours with Stephen Figueroa, age 29, of Shelton.

The victim reported that she went over to Figueroa's apartment in Shelton at approximately 4:00 AM to retrieve personal property. The victim reported that Figueroa would not return her property or allow her to leave.

Residents of the apartment building contacted the police to report a disturbance at the apartment, however responding officers were unable to make contact with anyone at the address.

The victim came to the Police the department the following morning and made a complaint to Police.

Based on the investigation Officers made contact with Figueroa, who was placed under arrest and charged with disorderly conduct, assault 3rd degree, threatening 2nd degree, unlawful restraint 2nd degree, and risk of injury to a minor. Figueroa posted a $150,000 bond and appeared in Derby Superior court on 07/01/2019.

The risk of injury charged was applied as a 2 month old baby was in the apartment during the reported incident. The incident is still under investigation.

\**The charges in the press release are merely accusations, and the defendant is presumed innocent unless and until proven guilty****
