Monroe man charged with Home Invasion of Ex-girlfriend

On 03/11/2019, the Shelton Police Department arrested 34 year old Scott Ralston of Monroe. The arrest stems from an incident that occurred at Ralston's ex-girlfriend's house in Shelton. On 03/11/2019 Ralston showed up at his ex-girlfriend's residence at 3:00 AM pounding on the door. The ex-girlfriend, who was in the residence with her 2 year old son, barricaded herself in by placing a couch against the locked door. Ralston kicked the door until he was able to make entry. Once inside Ralston grabbed the ex-girlfriend by the hair and dragged her into the kitchen where he hit and kicked her. The incident took place in the presence of the victim's two year old son. During the assault the victim attempted to call 911 but Ralston grabbed the phone out of her hand and threw it across the room. Ralston then stole some prescription medication from the residence and fled. The female was checked on scene by EMS and refused further medical treatment. Ralston was located at Griffin Hospital and taken into custody for the incident.

At the Shelton Police Department Ralston was charged with Home Invasion, Assault 3rd Degree, Interfering with an Emergency Call, Risk of Injury to a Child, Disorderly Conduct and Criminal Mischief 3rd Degree. Ralston was held on a $250,000.00 bond and will appear in Derby Superior court on 03/12/2019 for arraignment.

\**The charges in the press release are merely accusations, and the defendant is presumed innocent unless and until proven guilty****
