PRESS RELEASE

Shelton Man arrested for Home Invasion

Detective Christopher Nugent
January 3rd 2019

On 01/03/2019 at approximately 5:30 AM a 22 year old male victim came into to the Police department to report that he was assaulted during the overnight hours. The victim stated that he was sleeping over his friend's house in Shelton, when her ex-boyfriend, Daniel King, age 34, of Shelton, came into the house and barged into the bedroom while they were sleeping.

The victim reported that King grabbed him out of bed and punched him in the face before striking him in the head with a firearm. The victim was brought to hospital, where he was treated for his injuries. After being released from the hospital the victim came to the Police Department to notify Police of the incident.

Shelton Police quickly located King and took him into custody. King was processed and charged him with Home Invasion, Burglary 1st degree, Assault 1st degree, and Risk of Injury to a minor. King was placed on a $250,000.00 bond. King is scheduled to appear in Derby Superior Court on 01/04/2019.

The risk of injury charge was applied as two juveniles were asleep in the house, where the incident occurred.

The charges in the press release are merely accusations, and the defendant is presumed innocent unless and until proven guilty
