PRESS RELEASE

Two Men Arrested in Identity Theft and Credit Card Scheme

04/10/2019

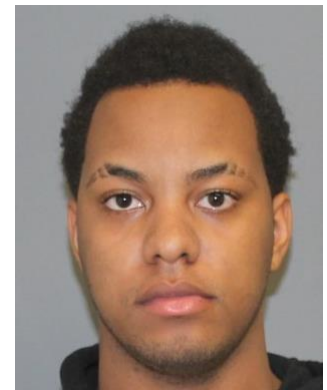

By: Detective Richard Bango

On 04/10/2019, the Shelton Police Department arrested 19 year old Jahquane Rennix from Queens NY and 28 year old Jordy Diggins of Mount Vernon NY.

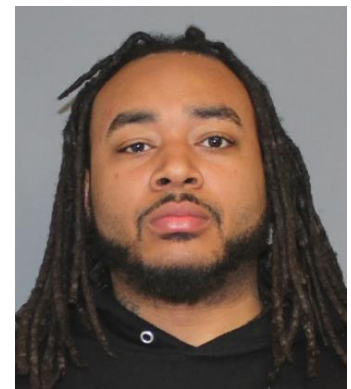

The arrests stems from complaints the Shelton Police Department received from victims stating that their bank accounts were compromised and their credit cards were used at Walgreens in Shelton. The victims stated they were still had possession of their credit cards. Shelton Police were able to obtain video of the two suspects using the fraudulent credit cards on 04/08/2019 at Walgreens.

On 04/10/2019, Walgreens employees called the police department and informed the two men were back in the store. Shelton patrol officers and detectives responded to the scene and stopped Rennix and Diggins exiting the store. Both men had several credit cards in their possession and Diggins had a credit card reader. Upon further investigation it was revealed that the men were able to capture victim's bank information and load it onto fraudulent credit cards. The two men would then use the cards to purchase gift cards and other merchandise.

Rennix and Diggins were both charged with 13 counts of Credit Card Theft, 13 counts of Identity Theft 3rd degree, 13 counts of Larceny 6th degree and 13 counts of Conspiracy. Diggins was additionally charged with Illegal use of a scanning device. Both men were held on $10,000 bonds and will be arraigned in Derby Superior court on 04/11/2019.
