PRESS RELEASE

By: Detective Richard Bango
February 1st 2019

Man arrested for downtown area burglary spree

On 01/31/2019 the Shelton Police Department arrested 47 year old Clinton McDevitt of New Haven. The arrest stems from five burglaries of office buildings, private residences and vehicles in the downtown Shelton area. The burglaries occurred between 11/22/2018 through 11/28/2018. The Shelton Detective Bureau investigated the burglaries and checked area surveillance video. McDevitt was developed as a suspect and further investigation revealed property stolen from the burglaries was sold by McDevitt. Detectives also located some of the stolen property still in McDevitt's possession.

McDevitt was charged with five counts of Burglary 3rd Degree, one count of Larceny 1st Degree, three counts of Larceny 6th Degree, one count of Larceny 3rd Degree and two counts of Criminal Mischief 3rd Degree. McDevitt, who was already in custody on other charges, was held on a $37,500.00 bond. McDevitt was arraigned in Derby Superior court on 01/31/2019.

The charges in the press release are merely accusations, and the defendant is presumed innocent unless and until proven guilty
